

International conferences on ALS/MND, 2 to 8 December

We're looking for volunteers!

In December, the 34th International Symposium on ALS/MND will take place in Basel. At the world's largest medical and scientific conference specific to ALS/MND several hundred ALS experts meet annually to exchange the latest advances in research and clinical management.

We are looking for volunteers who will actively support us at the symposium and its accompanying events and who will work with us to ensure that international guests can look back on exciting, instructive and unique conferences.

When:	From 2 to 8 December 2023
Volunteer roles:	Assist with conference on-site registration and provide general conference info passing the roving mic around during audience Q&A Assist with poster number set up
Times:	Either daily or the whole week, between 4 and max. 8 hours on site (including breaks) Briefing and assignment of tasks will take place before the start of the congress at a joint "Meet&Greet" for all helpers
Where:	Hotel Mövenpick Basel or Congress Center Basel (depending on the event)
Benefits:	Close proximity to internationally renowned researchers, ALS/MND experts from the fields of medicine and care as well as to people living with ALS/MND Free access to the presentations and lectures as well as to the poster exhibition Catering during conferences Volunteer Shirt

As there will be many international guests, it is an advantage if you speak English as well as German.
